To the Process Expo Community,

We are aware that Process Expo 2017 will be held during the high holiday of Rosh Hashanah and apologize to our Jewish colleagues for this inconvenience. With a convention as large as Process Expo it is often difficult to secure dates that do not overlap with important holidays. We have identified several synagogues in downtown Chicago that will welcome Process Expo attendees, speakers and exhibitors to services on the evening of Wednesday, September 20th and for morning services on Thursday, September 21st and Friday, September 22nd. These synagogues include Temple Sholom of Chicago, a reform Temple, and the Chicago Loop Synagogue, a conservative Temple. If you have any questions or need assistance to secure tickets for services, please contact us. Additionally, please be advised that with dates in the third week of October, PROCESS EXPO 2019 will not conflict with any holidays.
